

Archiepiscopal College and Teacher Training College Cologne

Initial training course for trainee pre-primary teachers and trainee Grade 1 teachers

10. - 11. 09. 09

Workshop

EASE Project Development for 16 participants

Focus on the four EASE goals

Peer to peer groups receive reading materials, linked to the EASE goals and the main target groups:

Children, parents and professionals of both sectors.

Venue: Archiepiscopal College

16. 09. 09

Symposium

Renate Niesel: ‚Transition a Pedagogical Challenge‘

Dr. Lotte Weinrich: ‚From Spoken to Written Language‘

Target group see above, their trainers, mentors, head of schools/pre-schools, parents,

Venue: University of Cologne

Erzbischöfliches
Berufskolleg
Köln

GD Bildung und Kultur

Programm für lebenslanges Lernen

Peer to peer groups conceive their projects related to the four main target groups and the EASE goals

29. - 30.10. 09

Workshop

Vygotsky's studies on child's knowledge building
Bronfenbrenner's system model
EASE Adaptation of the Learning-Stories Approach,
Target group: peer to peer groups and colleagues

05. 11. 09

Workshop

„Credit-oriented forms of documentation“ Presentation of good practice presented by the day-care centre Wittlich-Neuerburg
Target group see above

GD Bildung und Kultur
Programm für lebenslanges Lernen

Peer to peer groups submit their project drafts

15. 12. 09

Peer to peer groups submit their project outlines and the ,in‘ questionnaires

21. 01. 10

Marketplace of Good Ideas

peer to peer groups present inter-connecting curricula in early literacy that focus on child's ability to cope with transition in an active and play-oriented way, and co-operative practices with parents and pre- and primary institutions

Award of EASE Certificates

Target groups: stakeholders, heads of schools/preschools colleagues of both institutions

GD Bildung und Kultur
Programm für lebenslanges Lernen

